BOARD OF SUPERVISORS,-The first meeting of the new Board of Supervisors for this county, will be held to morrow, commencing at 10 o'clock, We presume but little more than organizing will be done.

DEAD .- W. J. McNash, the young man who was shot Thursday last by Mary Bethem, died yesterday afterabout 4 o'clock. We were told last evening that the young woman was arrested for the third time sluce the shooting, and lodged in the county jall.

TRANSPERS OF REAL ESTATE. are without our usual list of real estate transfers this morning. We made two or three inoffectual attempts to get it Saturday. The Recorder, we presume, was celebrating New Year, as nearly all his neighbors were. We do not, of course, find fault with him for this. About the only respite he has from his labors during the year, is on the Fourth of July. Christmas and New Year.

byterian Church, (South Wheeling), assembled New Year's eve in their place of worship and passed a very pleasant sembled New Year's eye in their place of worship and passed a very pleasant hour or two in listening to music, recitations, &c., by the Sunday School children. After these exercises were over, the little once were presented with packages of candy, toys, &c. Both adults and children were gratified and and children water some time. entertained, and at a sessonable hour retired to their homes.

THE WEATHER YESTERDAY,---We We presume; it is hardly necessary to tell our readers that yesterday was the most unpleasant day of the winter thus far. All of Saturday night the rain came down steadily. Yesterday, before noon, the wind boxed the compass almost every minute-the temperature was lowered and the anow descended in fitful gusts. As a consequence of all this, the churches were slimly attended. Altogether we doubt if a more stormy day has been known in the city for

NARROW ESCAPE .- We heard on Saturday, that a gentleman whose name our informant could not remember, had a very narrow escape from being seriously injured, or, perhaps, killed outright. As he was passing along the street in company with another gentleman, a pistol was fired by a boy at no great distance from them. Instantly strike the pavement a few feet in advance of him. The boy, we suppose, did not comprehend what he was doing when he charged the platel with a missile so deadly, and we trust that in the future he will not be guilty of day. New Year.-New Year's day was pretty generally observed in the city. Business was not as fully suspended as on Christmas; still, many of the stores were closed. Those that were open we don't believe were troubled to any considerable extent with customers. The salons were all in full blast, and us on the Saturday previous did a heavy for their appearance at the March term on the Saturday previous and a state of the Circuit Court. BOARD OF EDUCATION .- The new Board of Education will hold its first meeting to-night in the First Branch Council Chamber. There were but five changes made at theslection in October

Among the first business to be done to-night will be the election of a President and Clerk. For the latter position we have heard no one spoken of in opposition to the present efficient and obliging incumbent, Mr. Bickel. He has proved a faithful and competent offloer

The election of a Superintendent of the Schools in this district will also take place at this meeting. Prof. Williams has filled the position for several years. Thus far no opposition to his re-election has been developed, that we bays heard of and we presume he will have a clear track. That he is thoroughone of the gentlemen felt something ly qualified to discharge the duties, we graze his temple, and saw a marble believe no one will attempt to call in question. For such positions we fail to discover the propriety of making fre quent changes.

THERE was quite a lively time a Hamilton & Harding's Music Store on such an indiscretion as that of Satur- Baturday, in securing tickets for Miss Olive's Lecture. Parties wishing tickets had better secure them beforehand, as every seat will be sold before the lecture commences. Go and attend to it at once.

The boy had left home not more than five minutes before word was brought that he was dead. The scene that followed the reception of the intelligence in that household cannot be described. The particulars of this sad affair, we believe are substantially the following: Young McKernan, St. Charles, and several other boys were in the street, in front of the box occupied by the weighmaster of the Sixth Ward scales, shooting an old musket by turns. More thanked ing it handed it to St. Charles. While St. O. was in the act of raising it to his ahout an inch, to the left of the spinal column, tearling, loose in the process.
